NARRATIVE

On November 29th, 2025, at approximately 2252 hours, while conducting traffic enforcement in the area of Route 50 and Fourth Street, I observed a black in color Volkswagen Sedan with tinted front windows, and no front license plate driving northbound on Route 50 from the area of the Wawa located on Third Street and Route 50.

I conducted an inquiry on the New Jersey registration that was affixed to the rear license plate mounting area of the vehicle, F35VLP. The results of the license plate check showed that the registered owner of the vehicle, Devon T. Barber, had his driving privileges suspended in the State of New Jersey. I notified dispatch that I would be conducting a motor vehicle stop on the vehicle and the vehicle stopped in the area of Route 50 just North of Old Egg Harbor Road. After slowing and coming to a stop, the driver of the vehicle stuck his head and arms out of the driver side door signaling to me if I wanted him to stop his vehicle further ahead. I requested the driver to remain seated and wait for me to approach the vehicle.

I approached the vehicle and made contact with the driver of the vehicle and confirmed it was Devon who was driving and I was able to determine that he was the only occupant inside the vehicle. Before I could explain to him the reason for my stop, Devon requested to know what my reasonable articulable suspicion for my traffic stop was. I explained to him that his license was suspended and that I needed his documentation and if he did not provide me with the documents his vehicle would be towed as he could not drive on a suspended license. Devon explained that he did not have a license, indicated that he was operating the vehicle under duress and that he was in the middle of moving from Mays Landing to Atlantic City. He handed me his passport instead and attempted to pass me legal paperwork which was not documentation for his vehicle which I had initially requested. Devon went on to explain that he was in the midst of litigation with the State of New Jersey regarding the suspension of his license stating that his driving privileges were unjustly suspended. He also went on to state that I did not understand his individual needs and needed to drive in order to make his move from Mays Landing to Atlantic City an easier one.

When I questioned him about the insurance for the vehicle, Devon stated that he did not have insurance, and that the vehicle was assured by God stating that he had driven thousands of miles without insurance. I asked him again if he was insured and he told me that it was none of my business if the vehicle was insured or not, and that he could not afford to keep the vehicle insured as he was not working. Devon was able to produce a progressive insurance card which had lapsed and therefore was not valid.

I returned to my vehicle and requested dispatch to inform me on the reason for Devon's suspension.

Incident Report Number 25-041706	Incident Location: Rt 50/Old Egg Harbor Rd	Incident Date: 11/29/2025
-------------------------------------	---	------------------------------

Dispatch advised that Devon was last suspended for driving his vehicle while suspended. Having this knowledge, I contacted Acting Sergeant Clune via radio and requested the vehicle to be towed, and he approved a tow of the vehicle. I notified dispatch and requested a tow for the vehicle as well as additional patrol units as Devon's behavior indicated to me that he was a Sovereign Citizen; and the training I received on the topic of Sovereign Citizens placed an emphasis on the jargon they use on motor vehicle stops. Relying on my training the replies that Devon gave me such as stating that he did not have insurance but an assurance from God, him passing me paperwork unrelated to my motor vehicle stop and that he was operating the vehicle under duress indicated to me that he displayed behavior in line with a Sovereign Citizen. Officers Merritt and Hare responded shortly afterwards.

As I generated several traffic citations, I informed Ofc. Merritt and Hare the basis for my stop and indicated to them that I would have Devon get out of the vehicle. While I was in my patrol vehicle, Devon attempted to exit his vehicle, with patrol officers requesting he re-enter his vehicle multiple times. At this time, I had heightened concern for my safety and the safety of the other patrol officers as I was unsure of what Devon's intentions were after getting out of his vehicle several times. After I finished generating the traffic summonses, I approached Devon's vehicle. At this time, Devon had his head out of the sunroof of the vehicle. As I approached the vehicle, Devon stated "I hope you aren't towing my car because this is my property", he also cited case law to reference why we could not tow his vehicle.

Upon approach, I requested Devon to get out of the vehicle. I placed my hand on his left arm at that time as a defensive posture given his behavior up to this point. He questioned my request and at that time I ordered him to exit the vehicle. Devon began to pull his left arm away from me stating that he would get out of the vehicle if I had asked nicely. He proceeded to shift his weight into the driver's seat of the vehicle, and upon observing this I believed that he was reaching for the shifter of the vehicle with his free hand. At this point, I believed that Devon was going to shift the vehicle into drive and flee from the scene or use his vehicle and place myself and additional patrol units at risk of injury. I felt that Devon was not going to get out of the vehicle willingly as he ignored my request and order to get out of the vehicle. In response to his resistance, I grabbed Devon by his hoodie and pulled him out of the vehicle. Devon further resisted our control, and he was placed in hand restraints (double-locked) and after being searched, he was placed in the rear of my patrol vehicle. While en route to police headquarters to be processed, Devon was irate with me and remained argumentative.

Upon arrival to police headquarters, Devon was turned over to Officer Martin and Merritt for processing. I charged Devon with resisting, obstruction, and disorderly conduct, with the complaints being placed on the following Special Complaint (SC) forms:
